PHOTOESPAÑA 2013

GALERIA JOAN GASPAR

From June 4 to July 31, 2013, in the context of PhotoEspaña, the Joan Gaspar Gallery of Madrid in partnership with the Voies Off Gallery of Arles and the French Institute of Madrid will present an exhibition of Marlous van der Sloot (1986).

The exhibition 'Le corps vécu' of Marlous van der Sloot questioned the theme of 'Body, Eros and political', the common thread of the 2013 PhotoEspaña programming. The sheer and disrupted beauty of its models can invest human body through opposite yet complementary perspectives. In front of these images, full of feelings and emotions, we are revealing ourselves to the privacy of its models. This impression of proximity is immediately countered by the strange sensation that causes unusual attitudes and gestures of the characters. The artist criticizes the alienation of the human being in a society that denies the feelings in favor of reason. The works of Marlous van der Sloot offer a poetic vision of the sensitive body, its ability to take pleasure and to suffer.

Born in Holland in 1986, Marlous van der Sloot is one of the great discoveries of the 2011 Voies Off Festival. That same year, she graduated from the Academy of Arts of Holland with work focused on the perception of feelings. Her work has been presented at the Voies Off Gallery in Arles, in Naarden Fotofestival and Slideluck Potshow. Currently, she works for the Nederlands Dans Theater, the Korzo Theater and Me Studio.
